The Greater Cleveland Council of Orthodox Clergy - Sunday of Orthodoxy, 2010

Dear Friends,

The Orthodox Christian community of Greater Cleveland and Lorain will soon honor the Sunday of Orthodoxy. This year's celebration will take place on Sunday, February 21, 5:00 PM at the Holy Trinity Church, 6822 Broadview Road, Parma.

The Inter Orthodox Council is no longer in existence to handle the finances, and so the Greater Cleveland Council of Orthodox Clergy has assumed the responsibility of soliciting donations to underwrite the celebration and to support the Orthodox ministries that serve our area.

We ask you to contribute to this effort by making a donation to the GCCOC. In return you will be listed as a "Patron" in the handout at the Pan Orthodox Vespers, and the donations collected will be used to support the charities that were supported in the past by the Inter Orthodox Council.

Please make your check payable to the Greater Cleveland Council of Orthodox Clergy or "GCCOC" and return it to your priest or to the address below no later than February 15, 2010.

Yours truly,

Fr. Stephen J. Callos

It is 37 years since the legalization of abortion by the Supreme Court decision, Roe v. Wade. This decision damaged our constitutional and social order, because, as Wanda Franz, president of National Right to Life states, "the `unalienable Right' to life is no longer `endowed by the Creator' but dependent on someone else's moods and feelings. Under this peculiar principle, one and the same unborn child could be a `baby' in the eyes of one parent and a `fetus' to be aborted in the eyes of the other."
