Beloved Friends In the Lord,

Greetings! The Orthodox Christian Community of Greater Cleveland and Lorain will soon be honoring the Sunday of Orthodoxy, the first Sunday of the Great Fast. A celebration of this triumph of our Faith will take place on the evening of 05 March 2023, at 5:00pm. This service of Great Vespers will be hosted by Holy Trinity Orthodox Church (OCA), located at 6822 Broadview Road, Parma, Ohio 44134. His Grace, the Right Reverend Andrei, Bishop of Cleveland and Auxiliary to the Romanian Orthodox Episcopate of America (OCA), will preside as well as offer the homily.

Each year, the Greater Cleveland Council of Orthodox Clergy (GCCOC) solicits donations to help underwrite this celebration of our Faith, as well as to support the various Orthodox ministries and charitable organizations of our local area. We humbly ask that you consider providing a contribution to the GCCOC; in return, you will be listed as a "Patron" within the handout at this special service.

If you wish to donate, we ask that you make checks payable to the "Greater Cleveland Council of Orthodox Clergy," or simply the "GCCOC." Checks can either be given to your parish priest, or they can be mailed to the address below no later than 26 February 2023.

In Christ,
>>>Father Peter Simko
GCCOC Treasurer

The Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA is fundraising to provide HUMANITARIAN AID to the people of Ukraine The Ukrainian people need our support! However, beware of the many scam organizations that are popping up to exploit this situation. One way to be sure that your donation will go to the people of Ukraine and to where it is most needed is to offer your donations through the Consistory of the UOC of the USA: You can donate on uocofusa.org, or through Paypal directly <https://bit.ly/3t3K3wb>. Checks can also be mailed to UOC of USA, Attn: UA Aid, PO Box 495, So. Bound Brook, NJ 08880.

Sunday, February 12, 2023—Virtually again this year. The St.

Nicholas celebration in December revealed that many of us are still reticent about being in large gatherings of people. Accordingly, we will not be having the Party in the Church Hall again this year.

Tickets are still $10 each for a single box on the board and are available from Maria Hejnal (you can buy as many as you want and it's not too late to give them as Christmas presents!).

The board will be posted via our Facebook page and for those who request it, an email will be sent after squares are picked so you will know your numbers before the game.

Cash or checks can be made out to: St Nicholas Ukrainian Orthodox Church. All Money and tickets will need to be returned no later than Saturday, February 11, 2023. To get your tickets please contact Shelly Hejnal via ukiemom4@aol.com, text her @ 440-728-4485 or call after 5:00 pm. If you are out of town and want to get any tickets, please contact her for VENMO info and we will make sure a ticket (or tickets) will be filled out for you. Make sure your ticket stub is filled out completely with your name, phone number and email address. All monies and tickets need to be returned to the person who sold them making sure all goes in the hopper on Sunday, February 12. If you happen to be one of the lucky winners per board, we will contact you.

Dear Ukraine at the Lakewood Public Library

The Lakewood Public Library is sponsoring a programming series entitled, Dear Ukraine. This series is being held in conjunction with the global community poetry project of the same name, presented by the Wick Poetry Center at Kent State University. The Dear Ukraine community poetry project allows people all over the world to create meaningful poetry to reflect on their thoughts and feelings about the war in Ukraine.

As part of this series, the Library also aims to create awareness of the unique history and cultural achievements of Ukraine through library programming for all audiences. Youth can create crafts inspired by Ukraine and listen to Ukrainian folk tales. The Library will host a number
